

Jayantee Mukherjee Saha

Jayantee is the Director and Principal Consultant of Aei4eiA. Aei4eiA is a Sydney-based management research and consultancy firm focusing on 'People and Sustainability' matters.

She has extensive experience in the fields of business strategies, management research, people management & development. She has held senior positions with professional bodies and academic institutions and works closely with Government/public sector agencies, MNCs/SMEs, global bodies and academic institutions spread across Asia Pacific and UK. She regularly writes and speaks at various forums and has over 50 publications (including two books) to her credit.

Based on her research and consulting experiences, she has co-authored a book titled 'Succeed or Sink: Business Sustainability under globalisation'. Endorsed by Management guru Prof. Dave Ulrich, Global Business Director, Ogilvy & Mather Singapore and Sr. Vice President (Manufacturing operations), Tata Motors, India, this book has recently been published from Oxford, UK. CSR-Manager.org (the web presence of the renowned United Nations' Global Compact International Yearbook) listed the book as one of the resources to help organisations build their capability in areas of corporate social responsibility and business sustainability. The book was also nominated for 'The International Convention of Asia Scholars' (ICAS) Book Prize 2013. She has received the Arabian Society for Human Resource Management (ASHRM)'s 'Highly commended industry Paper 2012 award'.

She holds PhD*(Management), MPhil. (Management), MBA (HRM), BSc (Physics, Chem. & Math), Cert.(Human Rights), Cert('How to tackle discrimination in the world of work'- ILO) (*thesis submitted).